Vol. 17, No. 6.

Dedication Exercises Kent Club Hall

THE dedication exercises of Kent Club Hall passed off in splendid style last Saturday night in the club room in Science Hall.

The Kent Club is a literary and debating society in the Law Department of Stetson University, and its members are as follows:

Miss Lillian Thompson of Daytona spent the holidays in DeLand, the guest of Miss Annie Wolsey.

Call on Marsh Bros. for anything wanted from a well regulated market.

Dr. E. T. Allen has secured offices in the second story of the Bushnell block, over Allen's Pharmacy.

School supplies at Allen's Pharmacy.

The welcome visitors to DeLand during the holidays were George and his parents.

Orders at Ryland, or White Front Grocer Mr. Wood.

For Sale—There is a pleasant Furniture Store her mother, Mrs. H. E. Stock on.

Miss Mattie Burgess accompanied Mrs. Watson to Greensboro, and will spend the winter there.

Among the many young ladies from a distance who returned to Stetson this year are Misses Mattie and Winnie Mix of West Palm Beach.

Miss Mattie is stopping with Mrs. J. F. Allis and Miss Winnie with Mrs. C. O. Codrington.

Mrs. Spangler and two daughters, who returned to Stetson from Daytona, have taken rooms with Mrs. Holden in the Eyles cottage.

Senator and Mrs. W. H. Bristol are expecting their daughter, Mrs. W. A. Smythe, down from Owego, N. Y., to spend the winter with them.

Mrs. W. M. McGriff is conducting a very successful dancing school in Daytona.

J. Don C. Morris, formerly of DeLand, has been elected a member of the West Palm Beach city council.

Don led the ticket with a vote of 264; 384 votes were polled.

C. E. Kirk left on Monday for Tampa, where he goes to superintend the packing of several large crops of oranges for W. R. Fuller & Co.

Mrs. Ellen R. Jackman of Chicago arrived in DeLand Thursday night and is stopping at Mrs. Moore's. She brought her daughter, Miss Ruth, to place her in the University.

Mrs. Jackman will remain only two or three weeks.

Messrs. O. C. McElroy and J. H. Brumsey have issued invitations for a dance to be given at the Putnam house this (Friday) evening.

Good music has been provided.

Mrs. Powe entertained the Cranford Club Friday afternoon. Mrs. W. S. Taylor won the first prize at checkers.

Refreshments were served after the game.

Edith C. Sparkman visited his parents in DeLand Monday and Tuesday, leaving on Tuesday for Seabreeze, at which place he has accepted a position on the Seabreeze.

W. Raulerson and family left on Friday for the Miami country, where they go into the tomato business.

Mr. Raulerson, who is a poultry trade, has been working several months, for J. T. Cairns.
